Price was arraigned before Alderman Blair cal placed under bait in the sum of $200 to appear at court. He is yet in the station house awaiting bail.

Last Evening's Fire.

The overturning of a lamp at the home of Mrs. Wade, on Garfield aveune, caused a fire alarm to be sent in from box 39 at 7 45 o'clock last evening The Franklin and Columbia Engine companies promptly responded, but their services were not required. Mrs. Wade, in doing some household duties, ecidentally knocked the lamp over, nd the oil caught fice, igniting acticles in the immediate vicinity, Through the prompt action of those present no serious damage was done, A singular feature in connection with the affair was the actions of the Oxford fire gong. When the alarm was blown at the blast furnace, the West side alarm failed to sound. The space securified from the time of the alarm to the signal to blow for out was about 15 mitutes, and when Chief Ferber sent in the slarm of two blows, the gongs

Arrested for Brenking Windows.
